Important appointments

Please call 503-571-2229 for any of the following:

- Any advice past 20 weeks of pregnancy
- Signs of preterm labor
- In labor before coming to the hospital
- Your bag of waters breaks

In labor

First baby:

- 5 – contractions are 5 minutes apart
- 1 – each contraction lasts 1 minute
- 1 – this pattern has been going on for 1 hour

Not first baby:

- 7 – contractions are 7 minutes apart
- 1 – each contraction lasts 1 minute
- 1 – this pattern has been going on for 1 hour

If your water breaks

You may have a gush or a trickle. Be prepared to share COAT information:

C — color of the fluid

O — odor of the fluid

A — approximate amount (gush or trickle)

T — time you noticed the fluid

Call

Calling for consultation may or may not end up with your coming in right away. You may also call for consultation at any time during early labor.

If at any time you experience bright red vaginal bleeding, come in right away, and if possible, call while you're on the way.

If you are less than 20 weeks pregnant, or are postpartum and need advice, please call 1-855-285-4246.

What to bring to the hospital

What to bring

Your labor bag

Personalize your labor bag with items important to you. Include:

- Kaiser Permanente card
- Birth preferences and positions information
- Loose, comfortable clothing
- Robe, slippers, socks
- Basic toiletries
- Hairbands, ties, clips
- Lip balm
- Lotion, oil, massage tools
- Focal point, pillows, blanket
- Music, camera, laptop, phone
- Preferred snacks

What to bring

Partner

- Change of clothes
- Basic toiletries
- Mints, breath freshener
- Swimwear
- Sleepwear
- Snacks, easy meals

Postpartum

- Sleepwear (if desired)
- Going home clothes
- Nursing bra/pads
- Baby outfits and blankets
- Car safety seat

Car safety seats

The law requires that you use a child safety seat for your baby's first ride home from the hospital, and for all trips afterward.

We recommend that you have your safety seat installation checked by a Certified Safety Seat Technician.
